2019 Bermuda Championship Announces Final Field

HAMILTON, Bermuda (October 26, 2019) – The final field is set for the inaugural Bermuda Championship taking place this coming week at Port Royal Golf Course. Current FedExCup Points leader Lanto Griffin headlines a field that boasts 49 PGA TOUR champions with a combined 130 victories. Two PGA TOUR major champions, 2003 Masters Champion Mike Weir and 1997 PGA Championship winner Davis Love III, will compete.

“We are very proud and excited to have such a strong field for the inaugural Bermuda Championship,” said Tournament Director Sean Sovacool. “The field is full of talented young players mixed with PGA TOUR veterans and local competitors. We feel the Bermuda Championship will be a tremendous event for the fans and Bermuda.”

Also competing in the tournament are five Bermudians; Daniel Augustus IV, Jarryd Dillas, 15-year old Kenny Leseur, Dwayne Pearman and Michael Sims. Augustus was added to the field as the first alternate from the local qualifier.

About Bermuda

Out here is closer than you think. Located in the Atlantic Ocean off North Carolina’s coast, the island of Bermuda is just a two-hour nonstop flight from most eastern U.S. airports. Attracting adventure seekers, explorers, romantics and originals, Bermuda is where people, cultures and an alluring mystique swirl together, connecting visitors to a place far from everyday life. The island’s legendary pink-sand beaches, frozen-in-time historic towns and pastel-coloured buildings stand out at first. But it’s Bermuda’s original, ever evolving take on island life that brings travellers out here again and again. The Bermuda experience is elegant, relaxed and genuinely warm, celebrating cultures, reveling in nature and staying open to whatever is
