

HARRY HIGGS (-20)

Q. I'll say a tough hole. Did that make it a tough round of golf, what happened on seven?

HARRY HIGGS: No. I mean, Brendon took the pressure off of making a double on a reachable par 5, kind of takes the pressure off. It was pretty easy after that, just kind of get back to what I was doing, hitting it where you're supposed to.

I hit a good shot there, too. Looking back on it, I just hit the wrong club. The club that I hit, I thought I was going to end up 25, 30 feet left of it. The club that I hit could have gotten long, so probably could have just taken a second and played a bit more conservative in a way, but it's hard to do that when someone's rattling off a million birdies in a row.

No, I mean, that stuff happens. I didn't do it often this week, that's why I had a great week, and it's a nice little bit to learn from, for sure. Don't press when it's not needed to be pressed, if you will.

No, it was the most fun I've ever had getting my rear-end kicked, for sure.

Q. Talk about watching what he did. I mean, that was special.

HARRY HIGGS: Yeah, you turn into a fan. Like I turned to Mike after he birdied 11, this guy might shoot 56 today. Every shot he hit was just perfect, every putt he hit was perfect. It was fun to watch. It was hard to focus because I was almost cheering him on the whole time, like I want to see how good this is going to be for him.

But then there was a bit, the task at hand. I made the goal, just maybe when I made the turn, I want to finish solo second. I was very fortunate to do that. Played a good back nine, so I'll take that with me and continue to try to get in contention and learn from today and the whole week, for sure.

Q. One thing we learned this week is not only are you a good player, but you're a great personality on the PGA TOUR and you gained a lot of fans this week.

HARRY HIGGS: Well, thank you very much. Thank you guys for being here. We can't do it without you guys here.

Q. Support from the locals out there?

HARRY HIGGS: Sure.

Q. What did that mean to you? Seemed like they got behind you this week.

HARRY HIGGS: Yeah, it was really cool to kind of feel that. That's always nice, they're pulling through. I felt like for a while the cheers for me were a little louder, and then Brendon kept making birdies so they were cheering him louder. But no, I had a ton of fun with everyone. The island's great, everyone here's been great, so hospitable, well-run event. It was a lot of fun, for sure.
