Going Green at the Bermuda Championship

New PGA TOUR reusable cup policy; tournament remains as scheduled for fall

SOUTHAMPTON, Bermuda (April 22, 2020) – To celebrate Earth Day, the Bermuda Championship is pleased to share the PGA TOUR’s new reusable cup policy that took effect at the start of the 2020 season with the goal of delivering more sustainable and environmentally friendly events.

The revised policy allows spectators the opportunity to bring a reusable cup or bottle (plastic or metal) up to 32 ounces on property. Reusable plastic or metal cups/bottles must be empty upon entry and exit.

PGA TOUR announces return of golf

The PGA TOUR prepares to open the 2019–20 Regular Season in a safe and responsible manner starting June 8 with the Charles Schwab Challenge—with modifications being made to the remainder of the schedule. Additionally, the 2020–21 fall portion of the schedule has been released, with the Bermuda Championship remaining as previously announced for October 26 to November 1. The health and safety of all associated with the tournament remain of utmost importance as preparations are made to welcome the PGA TOUR back to Bermuda. About Bermuda

Out here is closer than you think. Located in the Atlantic Ocean off North Carolina’s coast, the island of Bermuda is just a two-hour nonstop flight from most eastern U.S. airports. Attracting adventure seekers, explorers, romantics and originals, Bermuda is where people, cultures and an alluring mystique swirl together, connecting visitors to a place far from everyday life. The island’s legendary pink-sand beaches, frozen-in-time historic towns and pastel-coloured buildings stand out at first. But it’s Bermuda’s original, ever evolving take on island life that brings travellers out here again and again. The Bermuda experience is elegant, relaxed and genuinely warm, celebrating cultures, reveling in nature and staying open to whatever is around the bend. The 35th America’s Cup, held in Bermuda in 2017, brought a fresh energy to the destination with new and redeveloped hotels, must-visit attractions and restaurants adding
