Purchase early-bird discount tickets for the official PGA TOUR event via the website before November 1st

Southampton, Bermuda (September 25, 2022) Tickets to the 2023 Butterfield Bermuda Championship are now available for purchase through the official tournament website. The public is encouraged to act quickly with early-bird discounts available until 1 November.

Daily general admission tickets are now available online for $35 per day. After Wednesday, 1 November, general admission ticket prices will be priced at $40. Those who want to upgrade their access to the Digicel Business Ocean Club, which includes beverages and bar snacks, can do so for $300 per person per day with limited tickets available. The price of these tickets will be $320 after 1 November.

Danielle Carrera, Tournament Director, said, "Last year's tournament saw tremendous growth, with record crowds, charitable impact, and engaging activities on the side lines, and we look forward to building on that this year. Further details will be shared as we get closer to the event and we encourage everyone to visit the website to purchase their tickets now to be involved in Bermuda's award-winning best spectator event."

Young people aged 15 years and under are admitted for free to the tournament (excluding hospitality spaces) with a ticketed adult. This year's event includes an enhanced family zone presented by Butterfield and Mastercard, Thursday's admission presented by Digicel Business, and the traditional Family Day on Saturday, 11 November, featuring local vendors. The tournament will also honor the late Brian Morris with a moment of silence during Thursday's competition.

As part of the continuing partnership with Aspen to promote sustainability, spectators are encouraged to bring their own water bottle. Water stations are conveniently located throughout the golf course.

There are still volunteer opportunities available for members of the public. Volunteers can donate their time and earn a local non-profit of their choice a donation of $200 by volunteering for a minimum of three shifts throughout the tournament.
