

ROUND 3 QUICK QUOTES
November 16, 2024

WESLEY BRYAN (-13)

Q. Wesley, just talk to me about today. That was pretty impressive.

WESLEY BRYAN: Yeah, I'll be honest, woke up this morning on very, very little sleep. Stayed up for the Jake Paul-Mike Tyson match and that didn't finish until about, shoot, 2:00 in the morning. It was one of those spectacle events that I just felt I needed to watch.

Anyway, was a little tired. Weather looked real sketchy and then I just had a quick -- I mean, wind was blowing 30 miles an hour while we were warming up. Got out on the golf course, it blew for the first couple holes and then we had a few holes where it laid down pretty nice for us. Anyway, started making birdies, then I guess I kind of woke up at the end and I guess it never really stopped.

Q. Aside from being tired, what was the mindset like given how you've been playing lately and the forecast for the incredibly strong winds today? Were you in a good place?

WESLEY BRYAN: Yeah, I've been hitting the ball really nice and been hitting it solid and been putting pretty well. I felt like these type of conditions really for my entire golfing career, I've really enjoyed wind. It just brings out a little bit more creativity, so I do enjoy the wind.

Then today, I mean, nobody knows a 61 or what, when a 61's going to come. That's just kind of a career day. Hopefully we can shoot -- I mean, get in the mix tomorrow on the back nine. That would be the ultimate goal.

Q. And last question for you, I've known you for a long time, I enjoy talking to you about anything and everything. How much fun have you still having with golf these days?

WESLEY BRYAN: Oh, I love it. Probably way more now than I ever have. Getting to now through the YouTube stuff, getting to spend a lot more time with George and hang out and travel the world and play golf with him and some of our really good buds, so that side has been a lot of fun.

Playing out here is, at least this year been a little more fun than it has been as far as playing wise, but also just some of the friendships that over the last couple years with guys like Carson Young and Sam Stevens and Akshay and Tom Whitney, just really, really close friendships that I've built out here that I felt like there was a lot of years where there was just some turnover and didn't really -- also, I mean, now that I've got three kids, they don't travel as much as they used to, so getting to stay and hang out to get to know these guys a little better's been awesome as well.

So having a blast with it. Going to go out and try to put a good one together tomorrow and maybe creep up that leaderboard right there.
